Ready Pac Foods Donates 24,000 Meals to Hurricane Harvey Flood Victims

Irwindale, Calif., August 26, 2017 – Ready Pac Foods, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Bonduelle (BOND.PA), loaded a truck on Friday with 24,000 freshly made Chicken Caesar Bistro Bowl® salads and left Southern California for the Houston area for those affected by the floods in Texas. The salads will be distributed by the American Red Cross Disaster Relief teams.

“Giving back to the community has always been an important part of Ready Pac Foods culture and knowing there would be a big need in Texas with the storm coming, we had to get involved,” said Tony Sarsam, Chief Executive Officer, Ready Pac Foods. “Our thoughts and prayers continue to be with those affected by Hurricane Harvey and the resulting devastating floods.”

Consumers, Customers and Ready Pac Foods Associates who wish to help may text “HARVEY” to 90999 to donate $10 to American Red Cross Disaster Relief or visit the American Red Cross website at www.redcross.org/.

A group of approximately 25 people, including men and women of various ages, are standing in a line in front of a large white semi-trailer. Many of them are holding white cardboard boxes with the Ready Pac Foods logo on them. The people are dressed in casual to business-casual attire, including jackets, sweaters, and button-down shirts. Some are smiling and waving. The background is a clear blue sky. The semi-trailer has a large logo on its side that reads "Ready. pac foods" with a green leaf icon to the left of the word "Ready." The number "22" is visible on a door to the left of the group.
